

<< Return to Main Page

Learning Outcome

Evaluate situations, make informed decisions, and initiate appropriate action.

Assessment Method

Work Based Assessment	Narrative Reflective Statements	Certificates	Validation Letter	Projects	Oral Questioning Interviews	Simulations Demos Products
	X		X			X

Performance Criteria	Assessment Criteria
	Developing	Competent	Exemplary	Comments
Action is taken within one's area of authority. Assistance is sought from supervisor when appropriate. Relevance of evidence in support of arguments is evaluated. Decisions are made in a timely fashion, defended, and followed through to completion. Initiative is shown in resolving job-related problems.	Tasks lie uncompleted due to indecision. Lack of skill may be apparent with regard to what information is needed to help decide on appropriate action; who to ask for information; how to decide what to do; and taking action.	Facts are considered; options identified and evaluated; then the best action is selected and carried out to completion. Appropriate range of contacts is accessed for gaining information to assist decision-making. Where the decided approach to be taken lies outside the applicant's area of authority, or where a clear decision cannot be made, approval or assistance is sought from the supervisor.	Creative approaches are sought and considered. Discretion is exercised as to who else needs to be included in the decision making process.	