

After receiving his PhD, Guy Le Masurier worked as assistant professor of kinesiology at Pennsylvania State University. After a few years, he and his wife missed living on Vancouver Island. So, they packed up and moved back. Today Guy is a professor in the physical education department at Vancouver Island University.

"I'm thrilled to be at Malaspina (now VIU). Being here, so close to the mountains and ocean, doing what I love is a dream come true."

Guy is part of the talented faculty at VIU. He's a professor, a neighbour, a friend. We're glad Guy chose Malaspina and you will be too.
