

Athlete of the Week
Award #30

MALE Recipient

Dan Goodburn
Men's Volleyball
Camosun College

Dan is a 3rd year 6'3" left side hitter with the Chargers. In his 2005-06 season, he helped the Chargers win a silver medal at the BCCAA Provincial Championships. He was also recognized as a CCAA Academic All-Canadian, A CCAA Scholar Athlete, a BCCAA Academic Excellence winner, a BCCAA Athlete of the Week and a BCCAA 1st Team All-Star.

This past weekend, Dan helped the Chargers to two victories over Douglas College. In Friday's 3-1 victory, Dan tallied 9 kills, 2 aces, 4 digs and he passed a 2.5. In Saturday's 3-2 victory, he tallied 14 kills, 2 aces, 5 digs and he passed a 2.4. Dan currently sits in 10th spot for aces and 12th for digs in the BCCAA volleyball league leaders.

Next up for the Chargers is a road swing to Cranbrook to play the College of the Rockies Avalanche on February 9th and 10th.

FEMALE Recipient

Laura Littlejohn
Women's Volleyball
Malaspina University College

Laura is in her 2nd year at Malaspina. She is an explosive middle with amazing ability. As one of the most dominating middles in the BCCAA last season, she was in the top 10 in blocks and named the BCCAA Rookie of the Year as well as the Mariner Freshman of the Year award.

Heading into the weekend matches, Malaspina sat 2 points behind the 1st place Lakers in league play. The Mariners won 2 huge matches to retain 2nd place and drop Okanagan to 3rd, placing them 2 points up on Okanagan. Laura was a huge factor in both matches. In the two matches, Laura combined for 17 kills, 10 stuff blocks and 7 digs. She excited the crowd with a one handed stuff block, a series of 51 pumps and some unusual timely digs. The Mariners as a team recorded a total of 39 stuff blocks in 9 sets over the weekend. Laura was the reason for the Mariners blocking success.

Next up for the Mariners is a road series vs the CNC Kodiaks in Prince George.

2006 - 2007

Week Ending Sunday, February 4th, 2007