

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION AND CARE

Personal Profile

Personal Profile Details	Time
Possible topics to address in your profile are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ❖ From your perspective, what are the roles and responsibilities of an early childhood education? ❖ Why are you interested in the ECEC program and how will this training fit with your career goals? ❖ Describe your learning strengths. Describe any learning and/or personal challenges that may interfere with your success. ❖ If you have been employed in an early childhood setting, please give a brief description of this experience. ❖ If you have previous training in early childhood education and care, give a brief description of the work you did and what you learned ❖ This is a demanding program with a heavy workload and a lot of homework. Once admitted to this program, how will you adjust your schedule to ensure that you have the time required to be successful in your studies? ❖ Please comment on anything else you feel would demonstrate your interest and suitability for the program. The profile is to be written in composition format with a topic statement, several paragraphs in the body and a concluding paragraph. The use of a dictionary is not allowed nor are notes you may have previously prepared. You may handwrite the profile in pen or use a computer, if available, without use of spell or grammar checks. The profile is read, not marked, by the coordinator and instructors in the program. Please print your full name on the top right corner of your personal profile. If you need writing help, the following Learning Centres are available at no cost: Nanaimo Learning Centre, Building 205, Room 204, usually open Mon - Fri 10:30 - 1:30. Call 250 740 6425 to confirm hours of operation. Cowichan Campus Learning Centre, Building 601. Call 250 746 3509 to schedule an appointment. Powell River Campus Learning Centre. Call 604 485 2878 to confirm hours of operation.	45 minutes